

My Dad got Covid so we had to self-isolate for the whole of Christmas and New Year. I was disappointed that I couldn't spend it with my Nana and Grandad. They were lovely and said we could celebrate with them on 10 January instead! My Mum cried when she pulled onto their drive and saw what Nana had done, she had put up a Christmas tree and two wreaths. Our presents were there and chairs set 2 meters apart, we opened our presents and ate mince pies outside too!

It was a lockdown Christmas celebration I will never forget!
